Fall 2020

Summer 2020

This past June, I had the privilege to fly out to Salt Lake City and join my dad and Spencer to help them with ministry. We had a street meeting, several Bible studies, and various street evangelism events.

During the street meeting, I shared a short devotional as did Spencer, and my dad preached the main message. Watch the video here: <http://EvangelismMission.com/videos/2020-06-slc-park>. Several people joined us in chairs for the service. Towards the end of the service, a lady came over and sat down. I noticed she was crying, so I sat next to her for the remainder of the service to try and comfort her. After the service, we talked for quite a while. She felt lost in every sense of the word. I've been praying for her since and have remained in contact with her. Please pray that she would decide to give her heart to Christ!

Since being in Salt Lake, I have heard from the lady and she seems to be doing much better than she was. I don't want to go into detail in order to protect her privacy, but I'm thankful for how God has been helping her. She told me how thankful she was that we (my dad, Spencer, and I) showed her love and that it meant a lot to her. It was very encouraging to hear from her!

We also did several Bible studies with people who were interested. This was a great time to share Christ and have fellowship with people. We would often have a meal at the motorhome with whomever was interested and then a Bible study. God blessed these times!

In July, I helped my dad with an Operation Save America event in Harrisburg and York, PA. We had a great time of outreach and training.

New Beginnings

This past May I was offered a job at Carolina Christian Academy (CCA) in Thomasville, NC. I interviewed for the job in May and moved to NC the end of July. I am working as the administrative assistant at CCA as well as teaching a couple classes in the high school, including the Bible class for grades 9-12.

I had a lot of mixed emotions when I moved to NC. Making the decision to change jobs was a very hard one to make. I will no longer be working for Evangelism Mission, but I hope to still do a mission trip with my dad during the summers and doing street ministry with him when he is in the area and even on my own.

I thank each and every one of you who has supported me throughout the years. Whether your support was financial, prayer, or both – the words “thank you” just don't cut it. I have enjoyed writing to all of you and sharing in your churches. Thank you so much for all you have done to help me during my time with Evangelism Mission. I appreciate it more than can I express.

God Bless,

Gabrielle M. Keister
