

First Encounters, Prayer Stand, Gospel Tracts, Signs

Bridging
the Gap from
God to Man

By Rodney Keister

1

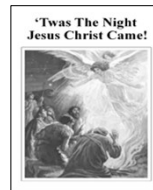

HOW TO DO PRAYER STAND EVANGELISM

- Meet them on their way by the prayer stand. Don't wait for them to stop to talk to you.
- Ask if you may pray for them or their family
- No desire for prayer, give tract
- Desire prayer, pray then bridge into the Salvation Message
- Pray non offensively for their salvation
In honor of Sister Myrtle Reed (Sally Sebo's grandmother)
She would pray for her loved ones out loud while in their presence top secretly "and God Please Bless Them Redemptively"

2

Tracts

- Visual:
 - Easy to read, not too complicated
 - Relative Graphics
 - Good Sizes
- Read what you hand out! (Is it doctrinally sound?)
- Know what is in it. Is the content accurate?
- If possible, use informative explanation when handing it out.
- Say things like:
 - "May I share one of these with you"
 - "Did you get one yet"
 - "Check this out"Sometimes your action is based on which tract you have
- Find what works for you

HOW TO APPROACH PEOPLE

- Many ways to approach, find your preferred way.
- But Make sure to approach them.
- If you just wait for them, you will often be ignored.
- Step out into the crowd
- Ask if you may pray for them or their family
- No desire for prayer, give tract
- Desire prayer, ask specifically how you may pray
- During prayer, pray "Bless them Redemptively"
- Pray, then bridge into the Salvation Message

3

4

Signs

- Scripture on at least one side:
Easy to read, not too complicated
Good Sizes
- Non-Scripture Signs,
Be led of the Lord!
- How far away can they read them?
- Can they be read at night

A man in a dark jacket stands next to a street sign. The sign features a bicycle symbol and a large text panel with a Bible verse: "Jesus said: '...Whosoever committeth sin is the servant of sin. And the servant abideth not in the house for ever: but the son abideth...'"

5

Signs

- Use to do interviews
- Nearly everyone who does not take a tract will at least read a sign.
- SIGN WEBSITE

SeriousSign.com

A man is holding a large white sign with a Bible verse: "Jesus said: 'I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me.'" Below the verse is "John 14:6" and the website "SeriousSign.com".

6